

2021 Readings

A cycle of all of the Sunday readings for 2021 along with readings for other notable feast days.

The Sundays before Lent and Sunday's of Trinity are commonly called 'Ordinary Time' and as such that prayer booklet should be used. For feasts which fall on a Sunday or are marked during the week the booklet for the current season should be used (eg for St James use the Ordinary Time booklet).

Currently we have not produced a booklet for use in Kingdom Season (the 4 Sundays before Advent) until such a time as we do produce such a booklet the Ordinary Time booklet can be used for this time.

If you need help deciphering the references they work like this: Book Chapter. Verse – Verse. However sometimes the reading skips over some verses in which case it would read: Book Chapter. Verse – Verse, Verse – Verse. Furthermore, sometimes the reading goes over multiple chapters in which case it would read: Book Chapter. Verse – Chapter. Verse. The key is in the full stops and commas. Where a verse reference has a letter after it (a/b) these refer to either the first or last sentence of a verse.
